KEYSTONE CANDIDATE LAUGHS AT DRY PARTY

Gibboney Says Prohibs
Are Not to be Reckoned With

YET CLAIMS ALL VOTES

Lieutenant Governor Aspirant Not Modest in His Predictions

D Clarence Gibboney, the Key- stone Lieutenant Governor candidate, who is really William H. Berry's boss and campaign manager for the Key- stone party, thinks he is going to prove a favorite among the Prohibi- tionists, but the same time is rather sneeringly treating them. Gibboney is not in favor of local option, and doesn't discuss Prohibition much, ex- cept to laugh at the Prohibition can- didates in the State of Pennsylvania. He probably expects his running mate, Berry, to carry the Prohibition votes, but in this will be disappointed.

When he was in this county Gibboney was put the question, "How do the Prohibitionists stand in Pennsylv- ania?" The attempts which had been made to discredit their candidate, Madison F. Larkin, occasioned the question. Gibboney's answer was a sneering laugh, while he shook his head to show the utter impossibility of the Prohibitionists being anything at all. Then probably to cover up a reckless move he turned to his ques- tioner, and said: "The Prohibition- ists are never to be considered in Pennsylvania; of course, and at this time the Prohibition vote will be ex- tremely small. It doesn't really mat- ter much whether the Prohibitionists have a party now or not, for we are going to get all their votes anyhow. Larkin might just as well not run." Gibboney thinks his lurch is the best ever, but that is probably be- cause they obey him to the letter. He is credited with knowing more than all the rest of them put to- gether, but it is doubtful if he could settle down for real office work, such as the position of Lieutenant Governor would require, even should the surpris- ing thing happen and he should be elevated to the throne.

TWO PEOPLE ARE CALLED BY DEATH

James Thomas, 29 years old, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Anderson in Roscoe, this morning at 2:30 o'clock after suffering for some time from lung trouble. The funeral ser- vices will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home and the interment will be in Lobes' Cem- etery near Walton. The deceased was a well known man in Charleroi and along the valley. Besides the sister at Roscoe one brother, at Belle Vernon survives.

Elsie Genevieve Van Straten, 9 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Van Straten, of 709 Oakland avenue, died this morning at 1:35 o'clock, after an illness of some dura- tion. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. L. W. Shev of St. Mary's Episcopal church will conduct the services. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery. Besides the parents there are two brothers who survive.

CROWDS COMING FROM TOWNS ALONG VALLEY

Special Cars to Be Run on Various Lines to Accommodate Visitors to Charleroi
On Hallowe'en

To accommodate the crowds which are coming from all along the valley next Monday to attend Charleroi's Hallowe'en celebration arrangements have been made by the trolley com- panies to run special cars. Crowds are anticipating coming from Mones- sen, Belle Vernon, Monongahela and other towns.

One of the features of the parade which will be held beginning at 7:30 o'clock promises to be the floats.

The reviewing stand will be at the corner of Fifth street and McKean avenue, where the prizes will be awarded. Music will also be a fea- ture, the two Charleroi bands, the Charleroi Concert band, formerly known as the John A. Wood, and the Charleroi Italian band having been engaged. The city officials are to lead the parade, Chief of Police Albright to have out the automobile patrol.

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED

National Utilities Com-Sues North American

An action to recover damages from the North American and E. A. Van Valkenberg, editor and president of the publishing company, was brought Wednesday in Common Pleas Court No. 4 in Philadelphia by Fredrick Hartman, counsel for the National Public Utilities company, the corpor- ation with which John K. Tener was identified, and which has been the subject of attack during the political campaign now under way for the election of Mr. Tener as the Republi- can nominee for Governor.

Lawyer Hartman states that the suit is an action to recover $250,000 damages for alleged libel and slander against the National Public Utilities Corporation. It is declared that the alleged false statements were con- tained in articles printed in the North American in its attacks upon Mr. Tener in the present campaign.

FIRST ATTRACTION IS WELL RECEIVED

Ross Crane Entertains With Crayon Drawing and Clay Modeling

If the first attraction of the Citi- zens' Entertainment course given last night at School Hall is to be taken as a criterion of what is to follow in the way of entertainment during the season, Charleroi will without doubt have the best course in its history. Last night's entertainer was Ross Crane. He displayed symptoms of Rooseveltism in his ready adaptability to all kinds of performances starting off with some samples of fine crayon work, lecturing meanwhile and draw- ing lessons from the pictures in a more forceable way than could have been done with just the lecture. Crane ranged at will from the sublime to the ridiculous, and when he wearied of drawing pictures, for diversion he performed on the piano, illustrating by acting various charac- ters with which one comes in contact daily. The program was completed with an exhibition of clay modeling. In this the natural born artist showed forth. Likenesses of Uncle Sam and Abraham Lincoln were formed with- out apparent effort as well, as num- erous other characters familiar to all.

MACCABEES ENTERTAIN

Furnish Program of Merit at Social Session Last Night

About 150 guests were entertained last evening by the Charleroi Hive of the Lady Maccabees, in their meeting room to meet Lady Elizabeth E. Brown, past supreme commander of Pennsylvania and Lady H. M. Ells- worth past great commander of the State. Both ladies gave very pleas- ing addresses on the origin, object and aims of the order, its rates and protection, speaking of it as the best organization in the world for women—and urging all to become members.

The following program was very ably rendered:

Piano Solo—Miss Mary Glunt; reci- tation—Mrs. Wm. Evans; piano solo—Master Ira Ransom; piano solo—Miss Hazel Blanchard; vocal solo—Mrs. Bertha Kleist; piano solo—Earl Nickelson.

The drill by the guards received much applause and was very ably put on under the direction of Captain Lady McGee. A very dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Ellsworth, the lady com- mander, has arranged for a member- ship contest with two sides, one cap- tained by Mrs. Cottle, and the other by Mrs. McGee. Preparations are being made for an initiation to be held at Donora on the afternoon of Decem- ber 15.

MUM SHOW TO BE OPENED SHORTLY

Crysanthemums to Be Placed On Display at Pittsburg

George W. Burke, superintendent of parks, Pittsburg, has reared the largest and finest chrysanthemum show in the world for formal opening Sunday October, 30. The collection contains 14,000 of the largest and finest flowers it has been possible for the city gardeners to grow. This is 1,500 more than last year and by far the largest and finest ever attempted in this county or abroad. Superintendent Burke states that Japanese visitors declare the show larger and finer than any ever given in Japan. The show will remain open free to the public for three or four weeks.

Three large houses of the big Phipps' Conservatory are devoted to exhibiting the chrysanthemums. Special attention has been given this year to blending the various colors so that the exhibit as a whole is the most perfect ever obtained. Twelve new varieties, never before in display in Pittsburg, will be shown. The flowers will be labeled and named so that visitors may see the contrast of the old and new varieties. Special arrangements will be made for taking care of the largest possible crowds and visitors will be able to see the entire collection without discomfort.

PREDICTIONS OCCASION MUCH LOCAL INTEREST

Residence Rule Proves Obnoxious

W. & J. Freshmen Now Eligible to Participate in Athletic Games

The faculty of W. and J. College, has lifted the one year residence rule for athletic teams and hereafter fresh men will be permitted to play foot- ball and in the various other games. The rule was lifted through the de- mand of the students. There are several good freshmen football players in school this year, as there were last, who were kept off the football team by the obnoxious rule. Their addition will strengthen W. and J.'s chances for a successful season won- derfully.

BIG CORN GROWS ON HIS FARM

John S. Rodgers, Esq., Has Good Crop
This Year

ALL OF THE ONE VARIETY

John S. Rodgers, Esq., of Fallow- field township, took to the Pittsburg Land Show today six ears of corn, samples of the product of about 50 acres on his farm, which he thinks will "show up" other exhibits. The corn is the Reid Yellow Dent variety. One ear which was measured is 12 3-4 inches in length and has 22 rows, with 56 grains to the row. The other ears are proportionate in size. Mr. Rodgers has a fair crop on his 50 acres, but the corn has not yet been harvested. At the land show in Pittsburg the largest ear thus far exhibited weighed 19 1-2 ounces. The largest ear of the number Mr. Rodgers took in today weighs 22 ounces.

WANTED TO SELL STOCK FOR PLANT

A committee of about eight mem- bers of the Charleroi Business Men's association held a meeting last night of short duration, when a man by the name of Alexander was present from Pittsburg, representing a company manufacturing telephone pole bottoms. It was understood that the company was desirous of securing a site to locate a factory, and the committee was to report to the association at the next meeting. This idea was quickly dissipated, however, when the man appeared. He merely wanted to sell stock and had a hunch that the Business Men's Association might help along the good cause. He was dismissed without getting any satis- faction.

MERCER COUNTIAN TALKS

Says Charleroi Man Will Win Out With Berry The Second Choice

Much local interest is felt in the election forecasts that are being made from different viewpoints and pub- lished from time to time. From those who best know conditions in the State who have made forecasts it seems that J. K. Tener, the candi- date from Charleroi and the rest of the ticket which he heads, will come out in the lead with nearly an even break between Berry and Grim for second and third places.

One noticeable feature is the fore- cast for Philadelphia county. While the Keystone party adherents are strong in their claims for victory, they concede that Philadelphia will give Tener a lead of 140,000 over Berry, whom they pick to get 60,000 votes there and Grim 30,000. Phila- delphia is the home of D. Clarence Gibboney, the candidate for Lieuten- ant Governor. Gibboney has been repeatedly asserting that unless Phila- delphia contributes 60,000 or more illegal votes to Mr. Tener, the latter cannot win. Other Keystone men are not so rash in their assertions who without any more evidence than Gibboney's say so will not allege ille- gal voting in Philadelphia, admit that the city of Brotherly Love is Tener, and that there is no more use talking about it.

Those best acquainted with Alle- gheny only give Mr. Tener a big lead. Reports from other various quarters show the Republican senti- ment strong.

A Mercer county man who probably knows condition over the State as well as anyone in the entire Common- wealth, made the statement the other day that he could not see anything else than a Tener victory. This con- clusion he said was not reached with- out due investigation and a thorough review of affairs politically from every standpoint. He could not esti- mate the probable plurality of Mr. Tener, but said Berry would be second.

Yesterday a Charleroi man well acquainted in Beaver and Lawrence counties, who was recently there on a trip said that in Beaver Mr. Tener would not by any possibility do any worse than break even, and if he did not lead by a big plurality it would be surprising. Lawrence will undoubt- edly fall into line, he said, and give Tener a big vote. The labor organ- izations, miners and industrial con- cerns are supporting the Republican candidates, because they are prac- tically sure that party will win and they will have to depend upon it for favorable legislation.

Twain and the Rivermen.

Mark Twain once told to a party of friends the following story on himself:

On one occasion when he started on a trip down the Mississippi river on a flatboat he was advised never to answer the questions asked by rivermen on other boats and never to bandy words with them, as he would be sure always to come out second best. He followed the advice religiously for a time, but one day he thought he saw a chance to get the better of a riverman who called out:

"Hey, thar, what yer loaded with?"

"Jackasses. Don't you want to come aboard?" yelled back Twain.

"That's what I reckoned seein' as how they let their biggest donkey beyther run of the deck," came back. Twain made a dive below as all the rivermen in the neighborhood set up a derisive laugh at his expense.

"Niggering" Logs.

The question was asked me as a native of Maine if I could find out what "niggering" logs meant in the statement "We niggered the logs." I found that "nigger" logs was to save the labor of chopping them into lengths by piling them up crossed at points where it was desired to separate them. By building fires under these crossings several logs could be burned into sections at once. Because "a nigger" was supposed to be lazy this lazy man's way of cutting logs into lengths was, naturally enough, called "niggering."--Appleton Morgan in New Shakespeareana.

Her Description.

Muggins--Women have such queer ways of expressing themselves! Bug this! Such as? Muggins--Well, my friend is telling me about Miss Yel-fowler and said she was a sight to behold and in the very next breath said she wasn't fit to be seen. Phila-delphia Record.

Road Activities.

Fair Passenger--But, good gracious, why didn't the train stop here? It is supposed to. Porter--Yes, miss, but the engine driver has quarreled with the station master.--Pitt. Star.

CURIOUS COLOR NAMES.

There Was Once an Extensive Group of Flea Shades.

"Puce," which was for a long time the name given an exceedingly popular hue, is when translated from the French simply "blue." It appears that the accidental admission of a flea at a court festivity in France and the subsequent discovery and capture of the uninvited guest gave rise to a host of jokes and anecdotes, and so a new color was jokingly named in the insect's honor. Indeed, there was an extensive group of flea shades--old flea, young flea, flea's foot, lively flea and others. Puce, which was a kind of drab, is still familiar to the reading public through its frequent mention in literature, drama and letters of noted personages in the past.

Few of us, however, know anything of the following colors, each of which was a favorite in its day and as familiar to the speech of fashionable ladies and gentlemen as are the cerise, old rose, etc., of our own time. Here is a little list of them.

Marathon blue, drooping poppy, green of the Oreads, triumph of Aspasia, robe of Venus, bridal blush, canary's tail, merry hunter, flying chaff, dolphin about to die, thundercloud, innocent infant, caterpillar brown fading hope, Cinderella russet, smoke of Volcanus, penitent hermit, dissolving pearl, Cupid's feather, captain's glory, beautiful savage, ambushed wild beast, rose of Eden, faithful shepherd, weary traveler's shoe, agitated nymph and dream of the beloved one pink-Exchange.

Wait a Bit.

Guest--Look here. How long am I going to have to wait for that half portion of duck I ordered? Waiter--Till somebody orders the other half. We can't go out and kill half a duck.--T.ledo Blade.

Flirtation.

"What really constitutes flirtation?" asked the young man of the woman of the world. "Attention without intention." replied the experienced one.--Scraps.

EDITORS EXPRESS OPINIONS

Believe That J. K. Tener is Absolved From Any Blame

TALK OVER THE STATE

It may be said finally that the charges against Tener are open to the grave suspicion of insincerity because of the fact that they were not made until just at the eve of election when it would be impossible to thoroughly investigate and prove or disprove them. It is an old and stale political trick, and no Republican should be misled by it—Connellsville Courier.

Not in the history of Pennsylvania politics has partisan rancor and journalistic brutality ever before stooped so low in order that voters might be betrayed and misled. Let Republicans remember the source, inspiration and motive of this attack upon their candidate and rebuke the nasty business at the polls on November 8th by voting for Tener and the whole ticket!—Pittsburg Gazette Times.

His last statement will be very gratifying to his enthusiastic supporters and will make them more zealous in furthering his election. He makes a courageous challenge to his accusers to take him into court. They will not do it but will content themselves with making these and other charges.—Uniontown Standard.

John K. Tener's offer to take the stock of any stockholder of the National Utilities Corporation who was influenced to purchase it through Tener's being connected with the company and pay him his money back, is the right kind of talk and will go a long way toward counteracting the charges of the North American—Punxsutawney Spirit.

With this the subject might profitably be dismissed from the campaign discussion. Mr. Tener's candidacy for Governor depends upon considerations very much broader and deeper. He is entitled, like every other candidate, to fair treatment and exemption from false accusation and undeserved abuse. It is much more honest to concede to him the personal merits claimed for him by his friends and to recognize him as a fairly representative candidate of the Republican organization to be supported or opposed for what he represents—Philadelphia Ledger.

IMPALED BY AN ARROW.

Pinned Through the Neck to a Tree. Yet He Survived.

It was in the summer of 1859 that George Wainwright and Ben Spencer, each in charge of a train of freight wagons, were headed for the Missouri river to bring supplies back to Colorado points. The Indians were very troublesome in those days, and these two outfits always camped together for protection. One night they had arranged the camp, with the wagons forming a circle, and everybody but the guards was to be inside. Wainwright preferred to sleep in a clump of cottonwoods, about a quarter of a mile off, and there he fixed himself with his negro servant as a bodyguard. Neither the camp nor Wainwright was disturbed during the night, but early the next morning while Wainwright was sitting on the ground with his back to a tree drinking his tin of coffee an arrow from an unseen foe entered his neck at the right of the jugular vein and was driven with such force as to impale the victim to the tree. The negro, believing his master was killed, ran to Spencer's camp and gave the alarm.

Spencer and some of his men rushed over to Wainwright. Instead of being dead Wainwright was not even seriously injured. Spencer cut the arrow off close to the point of entrance and then gently drew Wainwright's head forward until he was released. The victim suffered but little inconvenience from the wound, and by the time the trip was completed it was entirely healed.—Los Angeles Times

How Old People May Prolong Their Lives

At advanced age the organs act more slowly than in youth. Circulation becomes poor, blood thin and watery, appetite fitful, and digestion weak. This condition leaves the system open to disease such as Coughs, Colds, Grippe, Pneumonia, Rheumatism, etc.

VINOL is the greatest health creator and body builder we know of for old people, as it supplies the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissue and replace weakness with strength.

HERE IS THE PROOF
A case is recorded in Albany, N. Y., of a woman who felt she was breaking down by age and was doomed to the weak and feeble condition of old people. She had no strength and the slightest exertion tired her, but VINOL made her well and strong, and she states that she feels ten years younger than she did before taking VINOL.

We ask every aged person in this neighborhood to try a bottle of VINOL with the understanding that we will return their money if it does not prove beneficial.

Priest's Advice Led to Their Recovery

Thin, weak, or frail people—those who "chill" cold easily, and sufferers of Bronchitis and Asthma, should be prepared with Eckman's Alternative in the house. Remarkable cures of even Tuberculosis (consumptive) persons are often accomplished. Here are two instances:—
Gentlemen: "On Jan. 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular Peritonitis at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physicians gave me up. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 lbs. and am absolutely cured."
(Signed Affidavit) EDNA FINZER, 90 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.
Gentlemen: "I was troubled with Asthma and Bronchitis for seventeen years. After trying every remedy, Eckman's Alternative was recommended to me by our Parish Priest. I am now feeling fine. I cannot praise it enough."

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The cleanest, the easiest to care for, users of coal must remember that the ordinary heater is a big stove to operate. That is, smoke and ashes entail dusting, curtain washing and carpet sweeping. Think then of the ease of operation and the cleanliness of Cole's Hot Blast. This heater has a guaranteed smokeproof feed door through which a current of air draws the smoke directly across the top of the stove to the smoke pipe—away from the opening. Contrast this simple, cleanly feed with the side door in an ordinary heater. Side doors used on other stoves permit the escape of dirty smoke, unpleasant gases and accumulated soot drops from it. If you overfill a side door stove, coal falls to the floor. The airtight feature embodied in Cole's Hot Blast Heater is an everlasting advantage in its favor. Allow us to show you this perfect heater before you buy. (R-17)

Temporary Heat Quickly

Did you ever stop to think of the many ways in which a perfect oil heater is of value? If you want to sleep with your window open in winter, you can get sufficient heat from an oil heater while you undress at night, and then turn it off. Apply a match in the morning, when you get out of bed, and you have heat while you dress. Those who have to eat an early breakfast before the stove is radiating heat can get immediate warmth from an oil heater, and then turn it off. The girl who practices on the piano in a cold room in the morning can have warmth from an oil heater while she plays, and then turn it off. The member of the family who has to walk the floor on a cold winter's night with a restless baby can get temporary heat with an oil heater, and then turn it off. The

SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. Apply a match and it is immediately at work. It will burn for nine hours without refilling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. It has a damper top and a cool handle. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be quickly unscrewed for reworking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Tener and His Accusers

The cowardly conspiracy of money hungry newspapers and office hungry candidates to discredit John K. Tener before the people has served one good purpose. It has enlightened the honest citizenship of Pennsylvania as to the moral qualities of men who in this campaign as in other campaigns have presented themselves as Evangelists of reform. Strangely enough they have fooled some of the people, who appear to have a notion that a man in one campaign can appear as an indicted bribe-giver and in another campaign is a respecter of law and defender of "the public interest." These same persons also may believe that the ability of the nimble citizen in office to put through eccentric financial deals qualifies him to disgrace the pulpit with political harangue.

John K. Tener is an upright citizen. He has the confidence of every man and woman who knows him.
From the day when as a lad he bought his first employment he has had an unbroken business career of fair dealing. He never handled a tainted dollar in his life or countenanced a transaction that was not above suspicion.

The Republican candidate for Governor has met his traducers as any other honest man who is falsely accused would meet them. When he finishes with them there will not be a man outside the sinister alliance which has borne false witness against him who will not say that he has spoken the truth. Mr. Tener on the stump has answered the charges of those who for political purposes are willing to blacken his character. He will answer them again—in the courts.
There the conspiracy of his accusers will be fully disclosed. Mr. Tener frankly has submitted the facts and he will receive the vindication his friend's demand. Then those who have been deceived will be amazed at the discovery that what they accepted as enlightened reform was in fact stupid hypocrisy.

On November an unusual opportunity will come to the people of Pen-sylvania, an opportunity to elect as Governor a man who is able, clean and honestly by, an indorsement that will violently repel the blackhand methods of political vendetta. Every voter in this State who believes that the decalogue ought to have a place in politics should cast his ballot for Kinley Tener.

Gibbony in Wrong

Rev. James J. Bolten of Philadelphia, who was defeated for moderator of the Pennsylvania Presbyterian Synod yesterday in Pittsburgh, emphatically discredits E. Clarence Gibbony's claim of existing vice conditions in Philadelphia which the latter asserts are haunting and flagrant and chargeable to the Republican party, and which constitutes his chief campaign issue. Rev. Bolten said:
"In Philadelphia, while there is much that is evil, that every good man would like to have eradicated, just as in any community, yet Philadelphia has every saloon closed on the Sabbath and has every place of amusement of a secular nature closed that day. There is no other city in the world with the same population, that has a better kept Sabbath or a larger church going population. It offers larger comforts to the working people in the very small homes, many of which are owned by the occupants.

Those that pay rent, and who are greatly in the minority among the working class, can live in a house with a bath, parlor, dining room and comfortable sleeping apartments for from $14 to $16 a month. The property owners of Philadelphia pay less tax and therefore have lower rents than in other cities of the same size in the Union. Philadelphia supplies every home with clear, cold filtered water, which has greatly reduced sickness and has almost obliterated typhoid fever and diphtheria.

"Pennsylvania is to be congratulated in being absolutely free of debt.
The farmers are not assessed. Those who sincerely desire a change, ought to ask themselves, 'Is the machine that it is proposed to substitute for the one that exists, going to give us better results?' 'Yes,' you say, 'in temperance.' Is there any prospect of getting any better law than the Brooks high license law, which was indorsed by the citizens of the State?
Is it not possible to close every saloon by remonstrance, where the community wants to, under the present laws? We practically have local option now and saloons can be closed in any district, where people will sus-tain it by remonstrance in court.

"It would be quite interesting if the denunciatory and destructive methods of the campaign could be changed to clear statements of what the Keystone party is going to do for temperance, what acts it will pass and what policy it will pursue."

These charges against Philadelphia are in line with those made from time to time by the Acheson newspaper against Charleroi, which have repeatedly charged wholesale fraudulent voting here as well as asserting that our town is the centre of the "booze belt," where disorder and vice reign supreme. We who live here of course know differently, just as the residents of Philadelphia know that Gibbony's wild statements have no foundation.

Berry is Lacking

The Keystoneers are trying to make a point that Congressman John K.
Tener is not qualified to be Governor.
They assert that he has not the business ability and training and that he does not possess the qualities necessary to grapple with the larger questions of State. At the same time they take for granted that their own candidate, W. H. Berry is amply qualified in this respect, notwithstanding that Mr. Berry has never been engaged in any business enterprises of any magnitude, and was never very successful in his various business undertakings.

Mr. Berry has never been distinguished for his business qualifications or successes. He is a licensed Methodist preacher, and has preached in pulpits for many years. His time has largely been devoted to reform movements, and his erratic tendencies in this respect is shown by the fact that he has followed every new movement that has attracted passing attention. He has been a Greenbacker, a Free Silver Democrat, a Single Taxer, and a Prohibitionist, and has sought office under various political banners.
As a large portion of his time has been devoted to preaching and to following his various political aspirations, he is decidedly lacking in business training, ability, and sound practical judgment. He is a visionary and a dreamer, and in no way measures up to the gubernatorial requirements.

Philadelphia county is conceded to be Tener territory. And that is where Gibboney hangs his shingle.

Connie Mack's Elephant

For the elephant ate all night
And the elephant ate all day;
And do what he could to furnish him food
The cry was still "More hay!"
Till he tore his hair in wild despair
And piped his lachrymal glands,
And cursed his lot that ever he got
An elephant on his hand.
—De Wolf Hopper.

Shopping at home may be all right and cheaper, but look at the pleasure of going to the city especially on a wet day. And of course car fare does not amount to anything—nothing at all.

Acheson is said to want to run the jobs in Washington county and the only way for him to attain this enviable position of respect is to get Berry elected.

A Berry man said yesterday nine tenths of the traveling men to whom he spoke said the sentiment was strong for Berry over the State. Ten tenths of the traveling men we talk to say the sentiment is strong for Tener. Seems that the weight of numbers carries.

STATEMENT CLEARS ALL

Newspapers Discuss Phase of State Campaign

The charges against Tener, made wholly for political effect, may be laid aside with his answer to them. The campaign in Pennsylvania is of Nation-wide importance, involving as it does, in connection with New York, New Jersey, Ohio and half a dozen other States, the control of the Federal administration as between the Republican and the Democratic parties.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Up to this time the Tribune has not advised its readers to vote for John K. Tener. It wished to see his explanation before taking sides. It is entirely satisfied with the statement issued by Mr. Tener and it advises the Blair county voters to give him their support during the rest of the canvass and at the polls.—Altoona Tribune.

If the Public Utilities company

were a fraudulent concern when Mr. Tener served as its President, is it not the same now? But its president now is William S. Chrisman, a reputable attorney of Philadelphia, whose character the North American shows no disposition to assail for the reason that it is not assailable. We repeat that the North American is not branding in Mr. Chrisman as either a crook or a scoundrel. Is this purely because he is not a candidate for public office in opposition to the North American's choice?—Uniontown Herald.

Boys Arrested

A number of boys whose ages average 17 or 18 years, have been arrested by the police for damage they are charged with having done at the Charleroi Skating rink. They are alleged to have torn screens off the windows and committed other malicious acts. A hearing will be held later, when it is expected that the parents will be present.

Surprise Party

A surprise was tendered Charles McLaughlin, of North Charleroi by his sister, Mrs. O. Michiner, at her home in North Charleroi Wednesday evening. Games were played and a lunch was served. There were a number of young people present and all passed a pleasant evening.

ALLEN TOWNSHIP STRONG FOR TENER

Allen township is strong for J. K. Tener for Governor according to Dunlevy people who were here last evening. Dunlevy is in the third precinct of the township, and the people there are especially strong for the Republican ticket, and do not believe the slanderous statements made by irresponsible newspapers to injure the one who heads the list of candidates. A similar condition exists in the other precincts of the district, and the best people are going to support the valley candidate for governor.

"It's Adolph, of Course"

yet Mr. Grim joined heartily and graciously with his party leaders in the proposed fusion movement and promptly placed his withdrawal in the hands of the Democratic leaders of the State. Mr. Grim asked for no conditions. He had whipped Mr. Berry in a fair, stand-up fight for the Democratic nomination and yet he agreed to the extraordinary sacrifice demanded by a condition which Mr. Berry had made by bolting a regular Democratic convention. But Mr. Berry could not be shaken away from a nomination which he had gathered from some political garbage pile and the proposed movement failed, utterly failed, because of Mr. Berry's intense selfishness.

Should there be any doubt anywhere of Mr. Berry's selfishness just examine the records of the recent past. Mr. Berry was first elected mayor of Chester, his home town. He was elected because he pledged himself to contribute his salary as mayor to the town generally. That did not look good to him after he had gotten the office and he not only refused to keep that campaign pledge, but after holding the place for a few months he came to Harrisburg as a stranger and had several newspaper men from the east induce the Democratic leaders to nominate him for State Treasurer. Certain elements in the State had charged that there had been corruption in the construction of the State capitol building and Mr. Berry, as the personal representative and candidate of J. M. Guffey, the Democratic boss of the State, pledged himself not only to find the alleged crookedness in the Guffey freely and almost lavishly supplied the money for Berry's campaign. During the campaign the Republican leaders pledged themselves to find flaws if any existed in the State building, but Mr. Berry was elected on account of the fact that he had an unlimited bank account upon which to draw, said bank account being furnished by Mr. Guffey. Immediately upon his becoming State Treasurer Mr. Berry baited his trap to catch the gubernatorial nomination. He joined with the Republican auditor general, the Republican Governor and other Republican officials in hunting down fraud in the capitol building. Whatever he found he carefully concealed with a view to having it as campaign material when he should be the Democratic candidate for Governor. He did not expose the alleged crookedness when he found it. That might have served the State and the party which elected him. He held it all back for two years and allowed whatever crookedness there was to proceed for his own selfish purposes. Whatever there was of the alleged crookedness in the capitol building was given to the public by the Republicans. They proposed to hunt down the alleged crooks and punish them. Mr. Berry proposed to allow the crookedness to go on so that he might personally profit by it. When the Democrats refused to make him their candidate for Governor he bolted the whole business and the expose of the capitol crookedness was with the Republicans then in office. The punishment of the alleged crooks has been since then with the Republicans and the law has been applied without fear or favor. Mr. Berry's selfishness, pure and simple, has prevented him from taking any part whatever in any reform or betterment in the affairs of Pennsylvania. He is for Berry first, last and all the time. That is why he has refused to withdraw in the interest of general fusion.

It will be recalled that D. Clarence Gibbons and a few others of his stripe organized a party in Harrisburg the night before John K. Tener was nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor. Mr. Gibbons had himself named as the candidate for Governor. The announced purpose at that time was to hold the organization as a sort of political trading post for the discontents. At the first possible opportunity Mr. Gibbons withdrew as the gubernatorial candidate with a view to having Mr. Guthrie, of Pittsburgh or some one of his class as the candidate. Then Mr. Berry crowded into the game and literally stole the nomination from the discontents and had the crowd designated as the Keystone party. Ever since then the Gibbons crowd has been fighting to shake Berry loose, but they have failed miserably. Mr. Berry does not hesitate to say that he is in the hands of the Almighty in this contest. Naturally Mr. Berry is alone in that conclusion. His friends are alarmed about him, however.

In the meantime John K. Tener, the regular Republican candidate for Governor, is going along in the even gait of a successful candidate. He is standing firmly upon the principles of his party, which demand protection to the wage earner and the wage payer alike, and guarantees prosperity to this great Commonwealth. Mr. Tener is being assisted in his fight by Governor Edwin S. Stuart, generally accepted as the best Governor Pennsylvania has ever had; John Mitchell, the great labor leader, and a host of other figures conspicuous in the affairs of the State and Nation. It is certain that Mr. Tener will be the next Governor and those who keep their ears closest to the ground freely predict that his plurality will be not less than 200,000 votes.

By Comparison. Singleton—I understand you had a pretty lively time at the club last night. Wedmore—I thought so until I got home.—Boston Transcript.

WHOLE HOG FOR MR. W. H. BERRY

Keystone Party Candidate Refuses to Join in a General Fusion Movement

HIS FOLLOWERS DISGUSTED

Their Failure to Overthrow the Perpetual Place-Hunter Has Chilled Their Reform Ardor and They Are Withdrawing Their Support—Tener's Success Assured.

"The Whole Hog or no Meat" is the platform, principle and policy of W. H. Berry, who is now the candidate of himself for Governor of Pennsylvania. Mr. Berry has absolutely refused to consider fusion with the Democrats. He has refused absolutely to listen to the advice of the organizers and managers of the Keystone party to get out of the contest so that some such Democrat as George W. Guthrie might be substituted in the running. In fact Mr. Berry will have nothing short of the whole pie and apparently every soldier in the Keystone and Democratic parties have turned from his insolent selfishness in disgust. It will be recalled that the organizers and managers of the Keystone party first proposed to the Democrats of the State that there be some sort of fusion so as to centralize their parties against the Republicans. The Democratic leaders naturally hesitated. They were slow to sacrifice their old organization for a new and inexperienced crowd, but finally they yielded. The Democratic leaders agreed to allow the reform forces of the State to pick some real, straight-laced Democratic candidate for Governor and to accept the other candidates on the Keystone ticket as the fusion movement candidates. The Democratic proposition was entirely agreeable to the organizers and managers of the Keystone party, but it was not acceptable to Mr. Berry. He would hear to nothing other than being the gubernatorial candidate himself. The fellows who had put him on their ticket worked the hardest to get him off, but all to no purpose. It had the nomination of the Keystone party and he determined to hold on to it. Of course the nomination of the Keystone party was a mere bauble. After Mr. Berry had been whipped in a regular contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor he saw a crowd of political discontents gathered somewhere in the eastern end of the State and he shouted out: "I'm in." He has been "in" ever since and while all possible efforts have been made by the Keystone and the Democrats to pry him loose all their efforts have failed. As a result the real Keystoneers are disgusted with Berry. The Democrats are outraged at his selfishness and Mr. Berry has become his own candidate for Governor. His former followers have actually taken fright at his selfishness and have turned from him in disgust. Webster Grim, the Democratic candidate for Governor, heartily joined with the leaders of his party in an agreement to withdraw from the contest. His associates on the ticket also agreed willingly to get out of the fight and give their places to fellows who could not win them in the open. It must be remembered that Mr. Grim became the Democratic candidate in a free and apparently fair fight in a convention in which Mr. Berry was a delegate and well advertised candidate against him. Mr. Grim was nominated because he had the most delegates in the convention. Even Mr. Berry, selfish and stubborn as he is, has not charged that Grim's nomination was not entirely fair and open.

KEYSTONE CANDIDATE LAUGHS AT DRY PARTY

Gibboney Says Prohibs School Enrollment Are Not to be Reckoned With

YET CLAIMS ALL VOTES

Lieutenant Governor Aspirant Not Modest in His Predictions

D. Clarence Gibboney, the Keystone Lieutenant Governor candidate, who is really William H. Berry's boss and campaign manager for the Keystone party, thinks he is going to prove a favorite among the Prohibitionists, but the same time is rather sneeringly treating them. Gibboney is not in favor of local option, and doesn't discuss Prohibition much, except to laugh at the Prohibition candidates in the State of Pennsylvania. He probably expects his running mate, Berry, to carry the Prohibition votes, but in this will be disappointed.

When he was in this county Gibboney was put the question, "How do the Prohibitionists stand in Pennsylvania?" The attempts which had been made to discredit their candidate, Madison F. Larkin, occasioned the question. Gibboney's answer was a sneering laugh, while he shook his head to show the utter impossibility of the Prohibitionists being anything at all. Then probably to cover up a reckless move he turned to his questioner, and said: "The Prohibitionists are never to be considered in Pennsylvania; of course, and at this time the Prohibition vote will be extremely small. It doesn't really matter much whether the Prohibitionists have a party now or not, for we are going to get all their votes anyhow. Larkin might just as well not run."

Gibboney thinks his bunch is the best ever, but that is probably because they obey him to the letter. He is credited with knowing more than all the rest of them put together, but it is doubtful if he could settle down for real office work, such as the position of Lieutenant Governor would require, even should the surprising thing happen and he should be elevated to the throne.

National Utilities Company Sues North American

An action to recover damages from the North American and E. A. Van Valkenberg, editor and president of the publishing company, was brought Wednesday in Common Pleas Court No. 4 in Philadelphia by Fredrick Hartman, counsel for the National Public Utilities company, the corporation with which John K. Tener is identified, and which has been the subject of attack during the political campaign now under way for the selection of Mr. Tener as the Republican nominee for Governor.

Lawyer Hartman states that the suit is an action to recover $250,000 damages for alleged libel and slander against the National Public Utilities Corporation. It is declared that the alleged false statements were contained in articles printed in the North American in its attacks upon Mr. Tener in the present campaign.

Ross Crane Entertains With Crayon Drawing and Clay Modeling

If the first attraction of the Citizens' Entertainment course given last night at School Hall is to be taken as a criterion of what is to follow in the way of entertainment during the season, Charleroi will without doubt have the best course in its history. Last night's entertainer was Ross Crane. He displayed symptoms of Rooseveltism in his ready adaptability to all kinds of performances starting off with some samples of fine crayon work, lecturing meanwhile and drawing lessons from the pictures in a more forceable way than could have been done with just the lecture. Crane ranged at will from the sublime to the ridiculous, and when he wearied of drawing pictures, for diversion he performed on the piano, illustrating by acting various characters with which one comes in contact daily. The program was completed with an exhibition of clay modeling. In this the natural born artist showed forth. Likenesses of Uncle Sam and Abraham Lincoln were formed without apparent effort as well, as numerous other characters familiar to all.

BIG CORN GROWS ON HIS FARM

John S. Rodgers, Esq., Has Good Crop This Year

ALL OF THE ONE VARIETY

John S. Rodgers, Esq., of Fallowfield township, took to the Pittsburgh Land Show today six ears of corn, samples of the product of about 50 acres on his farm, which he thinks will "show up" other exhibits. The corn is the Reid Yellow Dent variety. One ear which was measured is 12 3/4 inches in length and has 22 rows, with 56 grains to the row. The other ears are proportionate in size. Mr. Rodgers has a fair crop on his 50 acres, but the corn has not yet been harvested. At the land show in Pittsburgh the largest ear thus far exhibited weighed 19 1/2 ounces. The largest ear of the number Mr. Rodgers took in today weighs 22 ounces.

WANTED TO SELL STOCK FOR PLANT

A committee of about eight members of the Charleroi Business Men's association held a meeting last night of short duration, when a man by the name of Alexander was present from Pittsburgh, representing a company manufacturing telephone pole bottoms. It was understood that the company was desirous of securing a site to locate a factory, and the committee was to report to the association at the next meeting. This idea was quickly dissipated, however, when the man appeared. He merely wanted to sell stock and had a bunch that the Business Men's Association might help along the good cause. He was dismissed without getting any satisfaction.

Twain and the Rivermen.
Mark Twain once told to a party of friends the following story on himself. On one occasion when he started on a trip down the Mississippi river on a flatboat he was advised never to answer the questions asked by rivermen on other boats and never to bandy words with them, as he would be sure always to come out second best. He followed the advice religiously for a time, but one day he thought he saw a chance to get the better of a riverman who called out:
"Hey, there, what yer loaded with?"
"Jackasses. Don't you want to come aboard?" yelled back Twain.
"That's what I reckoned seein' as how they let their biggest donkey be the run of the deck," came back. Twain made a dive below as all the rivermen in the neighborhood set up a derisive laugh at his expense.

"Niggering" Logs.
The question was asked me as a native of Maine if I could find out what "niggering" logs meant in the statement "We niggered the logs." I found that to "nigger" logs was to save the labor of chopping them into lengths by piling them up crossed at points where it was desired to separate them. By building fires under these crossings several logs could be burned into sections at once. Because "a nigger" was supposed to be lazy this lazy man's way of cutting logs into lengths was, naturally enough, called "niggering." Appleton Morgan in New Shakespeareana.

Her Description.
Muggins--Women have such queer ways of expressing themselves! Bug--Such as? Muggins--Well, my wife is telling me about Miss Weylowell and said she was a sight to see.
said she wasn't nt to be seen--Phila do! his friend.

Rural Anecdotes.
Fair customer--But, good gracious, why didn't the train stop here? It is supposed to. Porter--Yes, miss, but the engine driver has quarreled with the station master--Poor Steve.

CURIOUS COLOR NAMES.

There Was Once an Extensive Group of Flea Shades.

"Flea," which was for a long time the name given an exceedingly popular hue, is when translated from the French simply "flea." It appears that the accidental admission of a flea at a court festival in France and the subsequent discovery and capture of the uninvited guest gave rise to a host of jokes and anecdotes, and so a new color or was popularly named in the insect's honor. Indeed, there was an extensive group of flea shades--old flea, young flea, flea's foot, lively flea and others. Puce, which was a kind of drab, is still familiar to the reading public through its frequent mention in literature, drama and letters of noted personages in the past.

Few of us, however, know anything of the following colors each of which was a favorite in its day and as familiar to the speech of fashionable ladies and gentlemen as are the cerise, old rose, etc., of our own time. Here is a little list of them.

Marathon blue, drooping poppy, green of the Oreads, triumph of Aspasia, robe of Venus, bridal blush, canary's tail, merry hunter, flying chaff, dolphin about to die, thundercloud, intricate infant, catnip, brown fading, nope, Cinderella, russet smoke of Venus, penitent hermit, dissolving mist, cupid's feather, captain's glory, beautiful savage, ambushed wild beast, rose of Eden, faithful shepherd, weary traveler's shoe, agitated nymph and dream of the beloved one pink, Exchange.

Want a Bit?

Guest--Look here. How long am I going to have to wait for that half portion of duck I ordered? Waiter--Till somebody orders the other half. We can't go out and kill half a duck--T.ledo Blade.

Flirtation.

"What really constitutes flirtation?" asked the young man of the woman of the world.
"Attention without intention," replied the experienced one--Scraps.

Schmeiler the Smiler

There are many reasons why the people of Charleroi should buy their meat from the popular Meat Market and one of the strongest reasons is that Mr. Schmeiler kills his own meat, and sees to it that the sanitary arrangements are kept up to the highest standard. It is a sight to make one hungry to see the Schmeiler Meat Market lined up for the big Saturday trade, for in the display is a variety to suit every kind of customer and pocketbook. Mr. Schmeiler is starting in a regular series of special Friday ads in the Mail to bring the good news of the special offerings and prices for his cash customers on Saturday.

It will repay the frugal housewives of Charleroi to call and inspect the offerings and meats. The market is the old reliable at 333 Fallowfield. 63t1

EDITORS EXPRESS OPINIONS

Believe That J. K. Tener is Absolved From Any Blame

TALK OVER THE STATE

It may be said finally that the charges against Tener are open to the grave suspicion of insincerity because of the fact that they were not made until just at the eve of election when it would be impossible to thoroughly in- vestigate and prove or disprove them. It is an old and state political trick, and no Republican should be misled by it.—Connellsville Courier.

Not in the history of Pennsylvania politics has partisan rancor and journalistic brutality ever before stooped so low in order that voters might be betrayed and misled. Let Republicans remember the source, inspiration and motive of this attack upon their candidate and rebuke the nasty business at the polls on Novem- ber 8th by voting for Tener and the whole ticket!—Pittsburg Gazette Times.

His last statement will be very gratifying to his enthusiastic sup- porters and will make them more zealous in furthering his election. He makes a courageous challenge to his accusers to take him into court. They will not do it but will content them- selves with making these and other charges.—Uniontown Standard.

John K. Tener's offer to take the stock of any stockholder of the National Utilities Corporation who was influenced to purchase it through Tener's being connected with the company and pay him his money back, is the right kind of talk and will go a long way toward counter- acting the charges of the North American—Punxsutawney Spirit.

With this the subject might profit- ably be dismissed from the campaign discussion. Mr. Tener's candidacy for Governor depends upon considera- tions very much broader and deeper. He is entitled, like every other candi- date, to fair treatment and exemption from false accusation and undeserved abuse. It is much more honest to concede to him the personal merits claimed for him by his friends and to recognize him as a fairly representa- tive candidate of the Republican or ganization to be supported or opposed for what he represents.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Tener and His Accusers

The cowardly conspiracy of money hungry newspapers and office hungry candidates to discredit John K. Tener before the people has served one good purpose. It has enlightened the honest citizenship of Pennsylvania as to the moral qualities of men who in this campaign as in other campaigns have presented themselves as "evangelists of reform." Strangely enough they have fooled some of the people, who appear to have a notion that a man in one campaign can appear as an indicted bribe-giver and in another campaign is a respecter of law and defender of "the public interest." These same persons also may believe that the ability of the nimble citizen in office to put through eccentric financial deals qualifies him to disgrace the pulpit with political harangue.

John K. Tener is an upright citizen. He has the confidence of every man and woman who knows him. From the day when as a lad he sought his first employment he has had an unbroken business career of fair dealing. He never handled a tainted dollar in his life or counted a transaction that was not above suspicion.

The Republican candidate for Governor has met his traducers as any other honest man who is falsely accused would meet them. When he finishes with them there will not be a man outside the sinister alliance which has borne false witness against him who will not say that he has spoken the truth. Mr. Tener on the stump has answered the charges of those who for political purposes are willing to blacken his character. He will answer them again—in the courts. There the conspiracy of his accusers will be fully disclosed. Mr. Tener frankly has submitted the facts and he will receive the vindication his friends demand. Then those who have been deceived will be amazed at the discovery that what they accepted as enlightened reform was in fact stupid hypocrisy.

On November an unusual opportunity will come to the people of Pennsylvania, an opportunity to elect as Governor a man who is able, clean and honestly by, an endorsement that will violently repel the blackhand methods of political vendetta. Every voter in this State who believes that the decalogue ought to have a place in politics should cast his ballot for J. Kinley Tener.

Gibbony in Wrong

Rev. James J. Bolten of Philadelphia, who was defeated for moderator of the Pennsylvania Freemasonry Synod yesterday in Pittsburg, emphatically discredits E. Clarence Gibbony's claim of existing vice conditions in Philadelphia which the latter asserts are flaunting and flagrant and chargeable to the Republican party, and which constitutes his chief campaign issue. Rev. Bolten said: "In Philadelphia, while there is much that is evil, that every good man would like to have eradicated, just as in any community, yet Philadelphia has every saloon closed on the Sabbath and has every place of amusement of a secular nature closed that day. There is no other city in the world with the same population, that has a better kept Sabbath or a larger church going population. It offers larger comforts to the working people in the very small homes, many of which are owned by the occupants. Those that pay rent, and who are greatly in the minority among the working class, can live in a house with a bath, parlor, dining room and comfortable sleeping apartments for from $14 to $16 a month. The property owners of Philadelphia pay less tax and therefore have lower rents than in other cities of the same size in the Union. Philadelphia supplies every home with clear, cold filtered water, which has greatly reduced sickness and has almost obliterated typhoid fever and diphtheria.

"Pennsylvania is to be congratulated in being absolutely free of debt. The farmers are not assessed. Those who sincerely desire a change, ought to ask themselves, 'Is the machine that it is proposed to substitute for the one that exists, going to give us better results?' Yes, you say, 'in temperance.' Is there any prospect of getting any better law than the Brooks high license law, which was indorsed by the citizens of the State? Is it not possible to close every saloon by remonstrance, where the community wants to, under the present laws? We practically have local option now and saloons can be closed in any district, where people will sustain it by remonstrance in court. "It would be quite interesting if the denunciatory and destructive methods of the campaign could be changed to clear statements of what the Keystone party is going to do for temperance, what acts it will pass and what policy it will pursue."

These charges against Philadelphia are in line with those made from time to time by the Acheson newspaper against Charleroi, which have repeatedly charged wholesale fraudulent voting here as well as asserting that our town is the centre of the "booze belt" where disorder and vice reign supreme. We who live here of course know differently, just as the residents of Philadelphia know that Gibbony's wild statements have no foundation.

Berry is Lacking

The Keystoneers are trying to make a point that Congressman John K. Tener is not qualified to be Governor. They assert that he has not the business ability and training and that he does not possess the qualities necessary to grapple with the larger questions of State. At the same time they take for granted that their own candidate, W. H. Berry is amply qualified in this respect, notwithstanding that Mr. Berry has never been engaged in any business enterprises of any magnitude, and was never very successful in his various business undertakings.

Mr. Berry has never been distinguished for his business qualifications or successes. He is a licensed Methodist preacher, and has preached in pulpits for many years. His time has largely been devoted to reform movements, and his erratic tendencies in this respect is shown by the fact that he has followed every new movement that has attracted passing attention. He has been a Greenbacker, a Free Silver Democrat, a Single Taxer, and a Prohibitionist, and has sought office under various political banners. As a large portion of his time has been devoted to preaching and to following his various political aspirations, he is decidedly lacking in business training, ability, and sound practical judgment. He is a visionary and a dreamer, and in no way measures up to the gubernatorial requirements.

Newspapers Discuss Phase of State Campaign

Philadelphia county is conceded to be Tener territory. And that is where Gibboney hangs his shingle.

Connie Mack's Elephant
For the elephant ate all night
And the elephant ate all day;
And do what he could to furnish him food
The cry was still "More hay!"
Till he tore his hair in wild despair
And pined his lachrymal glands.
And cursed his lot that ever he got
An elephant on his hand.
—De Wolf Hopper.

Shopping at home may be all right and cheaper, but look at the pleasure of going to the city especially on a wet day. And of course car fare does not amount to anything—nothing at all.

Acheson is said to want to run the jobs in Washington county and the only way for him to attain this enviable position of respect is to get Berry elected.

A Berry man said yesterday nine tenths of the traveling men to whom he spoke said the sentiment was strong for Berry over the State. Ten tenths of the traveling men we talk to say the sentiment is strong for Tener. Seems that the weight of numbers carries.

The charges against Tener, made wholly for political effect, may be laid aside with his answer to them. The campaign in Pennsylvania is of Nation-wide importance, involving as it does, in connection with New York, New Jersey, Ohio and half a dozen other States, the control of the Federal administration as between the Republican and the Democratic parties.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Up to this time the Tribune has not advised its readers to vote for John K. Tener. It wished to see his explanation before taking sides. It is entirely satisfied with the statement issued by Mr. Tener and it advises the Blair county voters to give him their support during the rest of the canvass and at the polls.—Altoona Tribune.

If the Public Utilities company

were a fraudulent concern when Mr. Tener served as its President, is it not the same now? But its president now is William S. Chrisman, a reputable attorney of Philadelphia, whose character the North American shows no disposition to assail for the reason that it is not assailable. We repeat that the North American is not branding in Mr. Chrisman as either a crook or a scoundrel. Is this purely because he is not a candidate for public office in opposition to the North American's choice?—Uniontown Herald.

Boys Arrested

A number of boys whose ages average 17 or 18 years, have been arrested by the police for damage they are charged with having done at the Charleroi Skating rink. They are alleged to have torn screens off the windows and committed other malicious acts. A hearing will be held later, when it is expected that the parents will be present.

Surprise Party

A surprise was tendered Charles McLaughlin, of North Charleroi by his sister, Mrs. O. Michiner, at her home in North Charleroi Wednesday evening. Games were played and a lunch was served. There were a number of young people present and all passed a pleasant evening.

ALLEN TOWNSHIP STRONG FOR TENER

Allen township is strong for J. K. Tener for Governor according to Dunlevy people who were here last evening. Dunlevy is in the third precinct of the township, and the people there are especially strong for the Republican ticket, and do not believe the slanderous statements made by irresponsible newspapers to injure the one who heads the list of candidates. A similar condition exists in the other precincts of the district, and the best people are going to support the valley candidate for governor.

WHOLE HOG FOR MR. W. H. BERRY

Keystone Party Candidate Refuses to Join in a General Fusion Movement

HIS FOLLOWERS DISGUSTED

Their Failure to Overthrow the Perpetual Place-Hunter Has Chilled Their Reform Ardor and They Are Withdrawing Their Support—Tener's Success Assured.

"The Whole Hog or no Meat" is the platform, principle and policy of W. H. Berry, who is now the candidate of himself for Governor of Pennsylvania. Mr. Berry has absolutely refused to consider fusion with the Democrats. He has refused absolutely to listen to the advice of the organizers and managers of the Keystone party to get out of the contest so that some such Democrat as George W. Guthrie might be substituted in the running. In fact Mr. Berry will have nothing short of the whole pie and apparently every soldier in the Keystone and Democratic parties have turned from his insolent selfishness in disgust. It will be recalled that the organizers and managers of the Keystone party first proposed to the Democrats of the State that there be some sort of fusion so as to centralize their parties against the Republicans. The Democratic leaders naturally hesitated. They were slow to sacrifice their old organization for a new and inexperienced crowd, but finally they yielded. The Democratic leaders agreed to allow the reform forces of the State to pick some real, straight-laced Democratic candidate for Governor and to accept the other candidates on the Keystone ticket as the fusion movement candidates. The Democratic proposition was entirely agreeable to the organizers and managers of the Keystone party, but it was not acceptable to Mr. Berry. It would hear to nothing other than being the gubernatorial candidate himself. The fellows who had put him on their ticket worked the hardest to get him off, but all to no purpose. He had the nomination of the Keystone party and he determined to hold on to it. Of course the nomination of the Keystone party was a mercurial. After Mr. Berry had been whipped in a regular contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor he saw a crowd of political discontented gathered somewhere in the eastern end of the State and he shouted out: "I'm in." He has been "in" ever since and while all possible efforts have been made by the Keystone and the Democrats to pry him loose, all their efforts have failed. As a result the real Keystoneers are disgusted with Berry. The Democrats are outraged at his selfishness and Mr. Berry has become his own candidate for Governor. His former followers have actually taken fright at his selfishness and have turned from him in disgust. Webster Grim, the Democratic candidate for Governor, heartily joined with the leaders of his party in an agreement to withdraw from the contest. His associates on the ticket also agreed willingly to get out of the fight and give their places to fellows who could not win them in the open. It must be remembered that Mr. Grim became the Democratic candidate in a free and apparently fair fight in a convention in which Mr. Berry was a delegate and well advertised candidate against him. Mr. Grim was nominated because he had the most delegates in the convention. Even Mr. Berry, selfish and stubborn as he is, has not charged that Grim's nomination was not entirely fair and open.

yet Mr. Grim joined heartily and graciously with his party leaders in the proposed fusion movement and promptly placed his withdrawal in the hands of the Democratic leaders of the State. Mr. Grim asked for no conditions. He had whipped Mr. Berry in a fair fight for the Democratic nomination and yet he agreed to the extraordinary sacrifice demanded by a condition which Mr. Berry had made by bolting a regular Democratic convention. But Mr. Berry could not be shaken away from a nomination which he had gathered from some political garbage pile and the proposed movement failed, utterly failed, because of Mr. Berry's intense selfishness.

Should there be any doubt anywhere of Mr. Berry's selfishness just examine the records of the recent past. Mr. Berry was first elected mayor of Chester, his home town. He was elected because he pledged himself to contribute his salary as mayor to the town generally. That did not look good to him after he had gotten the office and he not only refused to keep that campaign pledge, but after holding the place for a few months he came to Harrisburg as a stranger and had several newspaper men from the east induce the Democratic leaders to nominate him for State Treasurer.

Certain elements in the State had charged that there had been corruption in the construction of the State capitol building and Mr. Berry, as the personal representative and candidate of J. M. Guffey, the Democratic boss of the State, pledged himself not only to find the alleged crookedness in the Guffey freely and almost lavishly supplied the money for Berry's campaign. During the campaign the Republican leaders pledged themselves to find flaws if any existed in the State building, but Mr. Berry was elected on account of the fact that he had an unlimited bank account upon which to draw, said bank account being furnished by Mr. Guffey. Immediately upon his becoming State Treasurer Mr. Berry baited his trap to catch the gubernatorial nomination. He joined with the Republican auditor general, the Republican Governor and other Republican officials in hunting down fraud in the capitol building. What ever he found he carefully concealed with a view to having it as campaign material when he should be the Democratic candidate for Governor. He did not expose the alleged crookedness when he found it. That might have served the State and the party which elected him. He held it all back for two years and allowed whatever crookedness there was to proceed for his own selfish purposes. Whatever there was of the alleged crookedness in the capitol building was given to the public by the Republicans. They proposed to hunt down the alleged crooks and punish them. Mr. Berry proposed to allow the crookedness to go on so that he might personally profit by it. When the Democrats refused to make him their candidate for Governor he bolted the whole business and the expose of the capitol crookedness was with the Republicans, then in office. The punishment of the alleged crooks has been since then with the Republicans and the law has been applied without fear or favor.

Mr. Berry's selfishness, pure and simple, has prevented him from taking any part whatever in any reform or betterment in the affairs of Pennsylvania. He is for Berry first, last and all the time. That is why he has refused to withdraw in the interest of general fusion.

It will be recalled that D. Clarence Gibbons and a few others of his stripe organized a party in Harrisburg the night before John K. Tener was nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor. Mr. Gibbons had himself named as the candidate for Governor. The announced purpose at that time was to hold the organization as a sort of political trading post for the discontents. At the first possible opportunity Mr. Gibbons withdrew as the gubernatorial candidate with a view to having Mr. Guthrie, of Pittsburgh or some one of his class as the candidate. Then Mr. Berry crowded into the game and literally stole the nomination from the discontents and had the crowd designated as the Keystone party. Ever since then the Gibbons crowd has been fighting to shatter Berry loose, but they have failed miserably. Mr. Berry does not hesitate to say that he is in the hands of the Almighty in this contest. Naturally Mr. Berry is alone in that conclusion. His friends are alarmed about him, however.

In the meantime John K. Tener, the regular Republican candidate for Governor, is going along at the even gait of a successful candidate. He is standing firmly upon the principles of his party, which demand protection to the wage earner and the wage payer alike, and guarantees prosperity to this great Commonwealth. Mr. Tener is being assisted in his fight by Governor Edwin S. Stuart, generally accepted as the best Governor Pennsylvania has ever had: John Mitchell, the great labor leader, and a host of other figures conspicuous in the affairs of the State and Nation. It is certain that Mr. Tener will be the next Governor and those who keep their ears closest to the ground freely predict that Mr. Berry will be no less than 200,000 votes.
